To Councilmen and Mrs. Schmidt:

I have just received official confirmation from Kenji Hori, Mayor of Takaoka, Japan, that an official delegation from our sister city will be visiting Fort Wayne July 7-10.

The group will consist of Mayor and Mrs. Hori, Sister City Chairman Nobu Hayashi and his wife, several city councilmen, three representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, several Jaycees, six Lions Club members, two Rotarians, and five businessmen who will be investigating the obligations involved in the proposed Fort Wayne-Takaoka Trade Fair for 1979. In total, 45 to 50 persons are expected.

Because I know you would like to be involved, I am asking that you appoint a committee to be in on the planning of activities for this delegation.

Please send me the names of those who will be serving on this committee so they may be advised of planning meetings.
